Williams Again on Hand.

Mr. Goff did not finish with Inspector Williams last evening, and told him so. In fact, he had hardly touched upon the last twenty years of that officer's areer in the Police Department. The aspector, therefore, was on hand somptly this morning, and prepared to to the stand for the third round in his set-to with the chief inquisitor.

He was just as unconcerned and confident in his manner as he was yesterday. dent in his manner as he was yesterday, ind apparently had no misgivings about he result of the encounter.

Both Mr. Moss and Mr. Jerome were is aked about the rumor that the investication would go on to-morrow, but they reclared that they did not know what would be done, and said that the question was still undecided. Nor would they alk about the plans for the day.

They smiled when they learned that Anthony Comstock threatened to come before the Committee to-day and disclose what he calls a "most infamous slot to traduce" his character, and ask fir. Goff why, when he was Assistant District-Attorney, he had not prosecuted Olin D Gray, in whose possession had been found a million and a half dolars worth of ottery tickets, and the syldence against him conclusive.

Sensior Lerow received a telegram from Senator Robertson shorty before moon stating that his brother had died suddenly at Peckskill, and that his attendance there was necessary.

"But we are here to investigate the Police Department," said the Chairman, "and I cannot see why we should hear other matters than those pertaining to police blackmail."

"Do you think Streep's testimony appeals to you as being credible or that a man of Mr. Comstock's sagacity would take a bribe before witnesses."

"I do not wish to express myself on that point at present," said Mr. Goff, and will decline to have anything to say to Mr. Comstock until he puts what he is said to have stated in writing. I mean all about a certain case in which the name of Gray flaures."

Mr. Goff said he had not received many applications from persons desiring a vindication. The subject was finally dropped, the Chairman having his way about it. He stated in conclusion that it must not be understood that the Committee was in any way desirous of shielding a single person who was charged with corruption, but the Comstock matter was not, in his opinion, within the scope of the Committee's investigation.

Inspector Williams was then recalled. ing. I mean all about a certain case in which the name of Gray flaures.

Stocks were firmer after midday and substantial rallies occurred in several instances on purchases to cover short contracts. The dealings were devoid of animation, however, and the traders were much mixed in their views as to the course of prices in the immediate future.

The bear movement culminated with an offer to sell any part of 5,000 shares of Delaware & Hudson at 1211-2 seller 69, by one of the room traders. Jersey Central recovered 2, and Lackawanna over a point from the lowest figures of the morning.
